

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
HARRISONBURG DIVISION

CLERK'S OFFICE U.S. DIST. COURT
AT HARRISONBURG, VA
FILED

AUG 28 2009

JOHN F. CORCORAN, CLERK
BY:
DEPUTY CLERK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

LISA DRUMHELLER RANKIN,

Defendant

Case No. 5:09cr00013-2

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

By: Hon. James G. Welsh
U.S. Magistrate Judge

The Grand Jury previously returned a multi-count Indictment charging in Count Five that on or about January 29, 2009 this defendant, an unlawful user of a controlled substance, did knowingly and intentionally possess at least one of the firearms more particularly described in Count Five, all of which had been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce, all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(3). As to this defendant, the Indictment also contained a Notice of Forfeiture.

The defendant was previously arraigned and entered a plea of Not Guilty to this charge. The defendant having now indicated an intent to change her plea to this charge, this case was referred to the undersigned for the purpose of conducting a plea hearing in accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3).

Pursuant thereto, a plea hearing was held on August 24, 2009. The defendant was at all times present in person and with her counsel, David L. Heilberg. The United States was represented by Craig J. Jacobsen, Assistant United States Attorney. The proceedings were recorded by a court reporter. See Rule 11(g). With the defendant's informed and written consent, the undersigned made a Rule 11 inquiry; the government presented a proffer of evidence for the purpose of establishing an independent basis for the plea, and the defendant entered a plea of guilty to the felony offense charged in Count Five of the Indictment.

DEFENDANT'S RESPONSES TO RULE 11 INQUIRY

The defendant was placed under oath and addressed personally in open court. She expressly acknowledged that she was obligated to testify truthfully in all respects under penalty of perjury and that she understood the government's right, in a prosecution for perjury or false statement, to use against her any statement that she gives under oath. See Rule 11(b)(1)(A).

The defendant testified to the following personal facts: her full legal name is Lisa Drumheller Rankin; she is forty-one (41) years of age; she has more than a high school education, and she can read, write, and understand English without difficulty. She testified that she had no medical condition, either physical or mental, which might interfere with her ability to understand and to participate fully in the proceeding, that she was using no alcoholic beverage, medication or drugs which might impair her ability to participate fully in the proceeding, that her mind was clear, and that she understood she was in court for the purpose of entering a plea of guilty to a felony offense which she could not later withdraw. Upon inquiry, the defendant's attorney represented that he had no reservations about the defendant's competency to change her plea and to enter a plea of guilty.

The defendant acknowledged that she had received a copy of the Indictment. She stated that she had discussed the charges with her attorney and had been given enough time to do so. She stated that she understood the nature of the charge against her in the Indictment and understood it was a felony offense. See Rule 11(b)(1)(G). She testified that she had discussed any possible defenses with her attorney and that she had been given adequate time to prepare any defenses she might have to the charge. She stated that her decision to enter a plea of guilty to the charge had been made after consulting with her attorney, that she was fully satisfied with the services of her attorney, and that it was her intention and desire to change her prior plea and to enter a plea of guilty to the charge pending against her in Count Five.

The defendant confirmed that she fully recognized and understood her right to have the Rule 11 hearing conducted by a United States district judge, and she gave her verbal and written consent to proceed with the hearing before the undersigned United States magistrate judge. The defendant's written consent was filed and made a part of the record.

The attorney for the government informed the court that the defendant's proposed plea was being made pursuant to a written plea agreement. See Rule 11(c)(2). By counsel, the government's understanding of the plea agreement was then stated in some detail, including: the parties' agreement for the defendant to plead guilty to Count Five of the Indictment [¶ A.1.]; the defendant's express acknowledgment of the possible maximum statutory penalty for violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(3) [¶ A.1.]; the defendant's express understanding that she may be required to pay fees for her incarceration and supervised release, that she may be required to pay restitution, and that her assets may be subject to forfeiture [¶¶ A.1. and B.4.a.]; the defendant's express admission of her factual guilt to the offense charged in Count Five of the Indictment [¶ A.1.]; the defendant's obligation to pay a $100.00 special assessment in full prior to entry of her guilty plea and the related restitution and assessment provision [¶¶ A.1 and B.4.a.]; the defendant's acknowledgment of the trial rights waived by entry of a voluntary plea of guilty [¶ A.2.]; the agreement's provision outlining the fact that sentencing is within the sole discretion of the court "subject to its consideration" of the Sentencing Guidelines and the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) [¶ B.1.]; the defendant's express recognition that she would not be allowed to withdraw her guilty plea irrespective of the sentence imposed by the court [¶ B.1.]; the parties' express stipulation of the applicability at sentencing of Sentencing Guideline 2K2.1¹ to the defendant's conduct; [¶ B.2.]; the government's agreement that for purposes of Sentencing Guideline 2K2.1(b)(1) the defendant will be held accountable for only one (1) of the firearms listed in Count Five [¶ B.2.]; the parties stipulation that to the extent that it was not inconsistent with the terms of the plea agreement each remains free to argue which guideline section(s) should or should not apply [¶ B.2.]; the government's agreement to recommend a sentence at the low end of the guideline range [¶ B.2.]; the acceptance of responsibility provision [¶ B.2.]; the substantial assistance provision [¶ B.3.]; the defendant's financial disclosure obligation [¶ B.4.b.]; the terms of the defendant's consent to forfeiture and inter alia her waiver of notice of forfeiture, of any defenses of per proportionality, of any right to a jury determination of forfeitability issues (see Libretti v. United States, 516 U.S. 29) and of any right of appeal (see United States v. Austin, 509 U.S. 602) [¶ C.]; the defendant's agreement to forfeit, and for entry of an Order of Forfeiture, certain enumerated assets, including currency, firearms and ammunition, vehicles, conveyances and equipment [¶ C.1-3.]; ² the terms of the government's agreement to dismiss from the Indictment and/or release certain residential property from seizure or restraint [¶ C.]; the defendant's express waiver of her right to appeal her conviction or sentence for any reason whatsoever [¶ D.1.]; the defendant's express waiver of her right to make any collateral attack on any judgment or sentence imposed by the court [¶ D.33.]; the defendant's abandonment of any seized items [¶ D.6.]; the defendant's waiver of all rights to access of investigation or prosecution records or information [¶ D.3.]; the terms of the defendant's statute of limitations waiver [¶ E.]; and the substance of the agreement's other terms and provisions. See Rule 11(b)(1)(B)–(N) and 11(c)(1)–(3).

¹ Base offense level 14: unlawful possession of firearms.

After which, the defendant was asked what her understanding of the terms of the agreement was, and she testified that her understanding was precisely the same as that set forth by the government's attorney. Counsel for the defendant, likewise, represented that his understanding was the same, and he further represented that he had reviewed each of the terms of the plea agreement with the defendant and was satisfied that the defendant understood all of its terms.

The defendant was then shown the original of the plea agreement; and she affirmed it to be her signature on the document. She further testified that no one had made any other, different or additional promise or assurance of any kind in an effort to induce her to enter a plea of guilty in this case and that no one had attempted in any way to force her to plead guilty in this case. After looking at her signature on the Plea Agreement, the defendant acknowledged it to be her signature and that it represented her entry into a binding agreement [See ¶ F.2.]. The agreement was then received, filed and made a part of the record, and it was noted for the record that the written plea agreement constitutes the best statement of its terms, and as such it “speaks for itself.”

² On motion of the government, by counsel, and with the defendant's express agreement an Order of Forfeiture was entered, and it is incorporated herein by reference.

After counsel for the government outlined the range of punishment for the offense charged in Count Five of the Indictment, the defendant acknowledged that she understood the maximum possible penalty provided by law for conviction of the offense to be confinement in a federal penitentiary for ten (10) years, a $250,000.00 fine, and a term of supervised release after completion of any term of incarceration. See Rule 11(b)(H)-(I). In addition, the defendant acknowledged that she understood that she would be required to pay a mandatory $100.00 special assessment. See Rule 11(b)(1)(L).

The defendant then acknowledged that she knew her plea, if accepted, would result in her being adjudged guilty of a felony offense and that such adjudication may deprive her of valuable civil rights, such as the right to vote, the right to hold public office, the right to serve on a jury, and the right to possess any kind of firearm.

The defendant was informed, and she expressly acknowledged, that the court’s determination of her sentence would include consideration of multiple factors, including: the nature and circumstances of the offense; the defendant’s history and characteristics; the seriousness of the offense; the need to promote respect for the law; the need to provide for just punishment and afford adequate deterrence; the need to protect the public; any determined need to provide the defendant with educational or vocational training, medical care or other correctional treatment in the most efficient manner; the kinds of available sentences; the pertinent sentencing guidelines and policy statements; the need to avoid unwanted sentence disparities; and any need to provide for restitution. She also acknowledged that she understood the court may order her to make full restitution to any victim and may require her to forfeit certain property to the government. See Rule 11(b)(1)(J)–(K).

The defendant testified that she and her attorney had talked about how the Sentencing Commission Guidelines might apply to her case and the court's obligation to calculate the applicable sentencing-guideline range and to consider that range, possible departures under the Guidelines and other factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). See Rule 11(b)(1)(M). She stated that she understood that the court will not be able to determine the recommended guideline sentence for her case until after the pre-sentence report had been completed and she and the government each had an opportunity to challenge the facts reported by the probation officer.

The defendant then acknowledged that she knew the entry of a guilty plea constituted an admission of all of the elements of a formal felony charge, and she knew that irrespective of any sentence imposed by the court she would have no right to withdraw this guilty plea. See Rule 11(c)(3)(B). She acknowledged that she knew parole had been abolished and that she would not be released on parole. She further acknowledged that she knew and understood any sentence of incarceration imposed by the court would also include a period of "supervised release," and she knew any violation of the terms or conditions of such supervised release could result in her being returned to prison for an additional period of time. See Rule 11(b)(1)(H).

Each of her procedural rights surrendered on a plea of guilty was also explained: including, her right to plead not guilty to any offense charged against her and her right to persist in any such not guilty plea; her attendant right to a trial by an impartial jury; her right to counsel to assist in her defense; her presumption of innocence, the obligation of the government to prove her guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, her right at trial to see, to hear, to confront, and to have cross-examined all witnesses presented against her; her right to decline to testify unless she voluntarily elected to do so in her own defense, her right to remain silent; her right to the issuance of subpoenas or compulsory process to compel the attendance of witnesses to testify in her defense, and her right to a unanimous guilty verdict. See Rule 11(b)(1)(B)– (E). The defendant testified that she understood her right to plead not guilty and the attendant trial rights that she would waive by pleading guilty. See Rule 11(b)(1)(F).

In direct response to further questioning, the defendant also testified that she was pleading guilty because she was in fact guilty of possessing a firearm while being an unlawful user of methamphetamine as described in Count Five of the Indictment.

To permit the court to determine whether an independent basis in fact existed for the defendant's plea, counsel for the government submitted for filing a written Statement of Facts which summarized the facts that the government was prepared to prove at trial. In addition, counsel for the government represented that the “firearm” had been tested and confirmed to meet the statutory definition of a firearm that had previously moved in interstate or foreign commerce. After confirming that this combined written and oral statement had been fully reviewed with the defendant, both she and her attorney agreed that it fairly summarized the government’s case. See Rule 11(b)(3). It was then received, filed and made a part of the record.

After testifying that she had heard and understood all parts of the proceeding, the defendant consulted with her attorney, voluntarily waived a reading of the Indictment and entered a plea of GUILTY to Count Five alleging her violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(3). The clerk then read the written guilty plea form to the defendant; after acknowledging it to be correct, the defendant executed it, and it was filed and made a part of the record.

After entering her plea of guilty and after an independent basis for the plea was established, the defendant was again addressed personally, and she reconfirmed that her decision to plead guilty was fully voluntary and that it did not result from any force, threats, promises of leniency or other inducement of any kind (other than that expressly set forth in the plea agreement). See Rule 11(b)(2). The defendant also reconfirmed her complete satisfaction with the services and assistance of her attorney, and she expressed her appreciation for all of his assistance.

The defendant was then informed that acceptance of the plea agreement and her guilty plea would be recommended to the presiding district judge, that a pre-sentence report would be prepared, that she would be asked to give information for that report, that her attorney may be present if she wished, and that she and her attorney would have the right to read the pre-sentence report and to file objections to it.

The defendant was continued on her bond pursuant to the same terms and conditions, and she was reminded that the penalties can be very severe for any failure to appear as required in a criminal proceeding or for any other violation on the terms and conditions of her release.

GOVERNMENT'S EVIDENCE

The agreed written Statement of Facts is incorporated herein and made a part hereof by reference. In addition, the government, by its counsel, represented that both the relevant firearm had been tested and confirmed to meet the requisite statutory definition and to have moved previously in interstate or foreign commerce.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the evidence, the representations of counsel, and the defendant's sworn testimony presented as part of the hearing, the undersigned submits the following formal findings of fact, conclusions and recommendations:

1. The defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea to the charge set forth in Count Five of the Indictment;
2. The defendant is fully aware both of the nature of the charge set forth in Count Five of the Indictment and of the consequences of her guilty plea;

3. The defendant is fully informed, and understands, the applicable enumerated items set forth in Rule 11(b)(1)(A)–(N);
4. The defendant's plea of guilty was made pursuant to a written plea agreement with the government;
5. The defendant's tender of a plea of guilty was made with the advice and assistance of counsel;
6. The defendant knowingly and voluntarily entered in to the plea agreement and knowingly and voluntarily entered a plea of guilty to Count Five of the Indictment;
7. The defendant's plea of guilty is fully voluntary and did not result from force, threats, promises, or inducements of any kind other than as expressly set forth in the written plea agreement; and
8. The evidence presents an independent basis in fact containing each essential element of the offense to which the defendant pleaded guilty.

RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

Based on the above findings of fact, the undersigned RECOMMENDS that the court accept the defendant's plea of guilty to Count Five of the Indictment, that she be adjudged guilty of the offense, and that a sentencing hearing be scheduled before the presiding district judge on November 5, 2009 at 1:00 p.m.

NOTICE TO PARTIES

Notice is hereby given to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C): Within ten (10) days after being served with a copy of this Report and Recommendation, any party may serve and file written objections to such proposed findings and recommendations as provided by the rules of court.

The presiding district judge shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified findings or recommendations to which objection is made. The presiding district judge may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the undersigned. The presiding district judge may also receive further evidence or recommit the matter to the undersigned with instructions. A failure to file timely written objections to these proposed findings and recommendations within ten (10) days could waive appellate review.

At the conclusion of the ten-day period, the Clerk is directed to transmit the record in this matter to the presiding United States district judge, and the clerk is further directed to transmit a copy of this Report and Recommendation to all counsel of record.

DATED: 28th day of August 2009.

/s/ James G. Welsh
United States Magistrate Judge